

K-LOVE has been an uplifting, encouraging radio station to me and my family. Any changes to their broadcast capability would be a detriment. Positive, encouraging broadcasts are important in keeping a proper perspective on life in general. It is my belief that without radio stations like K-LOVE, the ability for the community to hear a balance against a typical radio station's negative, downer news would cause a general apathy in the community. Please reconsider reworking the FM bandwidth.